

charge against the State at Large. The amount incurred by any county of this State, or by the State for treatment and maintenance for any insane person in the State hospitals for the insane and Rosewood State Training School shall be a charge against the estate of such person as provided in Section 4.

This section referred to in dealing with state's liability under act of 1914, ch. 778, for support of dependent insane at Sylvan Retreat (owned and operated by Allegany County). Allegany County v. Lunacy Commission, 127 Md. 165.

See notes to sec. 6.

An. Code, 1924, sec. 48. 1920, ch. 206.

50. The Board of Mental Hygiene shall have power and authority to make arrangements with similar bodies in other States, whereby insane, lunatic or feeble-minded persons who are being cared for at public expense in any asylum or institution for the care of the insane in this State (other than persons who shall have been transferred thereto from penal institutions; and the terms of whose sentences to such penal institutions shall not have expired), and who are citizens or residents of such other States, may be transferred at the expense of this State to similar institutions in such other States, and whereby insane, lunatic or feeble-minded persons who are being cared for at public expense in such asylums or institutions of other States (other than persons who shall have been transferred from penal institutions, and the terms of whose sentences to such penal institutions shall not have expired) and who are citizens or residents of this State, may be transferred at the expense of such other States to similar institutions in this State, provided that nothing in this section contained shall prevent the Department of Welfare of Baltimore City from making such arrangements for the return to other places in the United States of insane persons found in Baltimore City who are residents of such other places, and for the return to Baltimore City of insane persons resident therein, who may be found in other places in the United States, as said Department of Welfare has made or may hereafter make in accordance with regulations which said Department of Welfare has heretofore adopted or which it may hereafter adopt.

Rosewood State Training School.¹

An. Code, 1924, sec. 49. 1912, sec. 46. 1904, sec. 39. 1888, ch. 183, sec. 1. 1894, ch. 562, secs. 1 and 4. 1906, ch. 362. 1937, ch. 65, sec. 49.

51. Rosewood State Training School, a corporation duly incorporated by the Act of 1888, Chapter 183, under the name of "The Visitors of the Asylum and Training School for the Feeble-Minded of the State of Maryland," with the powers and duties in said Act specified and organized thereunder, shall receive, care for and educate all idiotic, imbecile and feeble-minded persons of this State whom the Board of Visitors shall consider proper subjects to receive the benefit of said asylum and training school, who shall be certified to them by the County Commissioners of the several counties of this State, or by the Department of Welfare of Baltimore City, formerly the Board of Supervisors of City Charities of Baltimore City; and all such persons shall remain in the care, custody and control of the visitors of said institution, and the visitors of said institution are hereby authorized to retain all such persons in their care, custody and

¹ Formerly known as Maryland Asylum and Training School for Feeble-Minded, but name changed by ch. 187, act, 1912.